

ANNOUNCEMENT FOR SCHOLARSHIPS AWARD TO STUDY MASTERS OF MEDICINE IN OPHTHALMOLOGY, THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022/2023.

CBM is an international Christian development organization committed to improving the quality of life of persons with disabilities in the poorest countries of the world. Based on its Christian values and over 100 years of professional expertise, CBM addresses poverty as a cause, and a consequence, of disability, and works in partnership to create a society for all.

According to the WHO World Vision Report 2019, eye conditions and vision impairment are influenced by the use of eye care services. A shortage of trained human resources is one of the greatest challenges to increasing the availability of eye care services and reducing the prevalence of vision impairment and blindness that could have been prevented or has yet to be addressed. In response to this, CBM's Scholarship Programme seeks to offer twelve (12) scholarship awards to doctors across Africa to study MMED in Ophthalmology (or its equivalent) in the 2022/2023 academic year. The scholarship package covers the tuition fees, stipend, relocation costs, in-patient medical cover for the resident, seminars, and a set of ophthalmic instruments.

Successful candidates should be willing to work for a 'service term'¹ in an eye care facility that serves communities in underserved areas of their country. To this effect, as part of their application process, applicants must be willing to sign a 'service term agreement'² with the eye care facility (service term institution) that they are currently working for and submit a copy to CBM.

1. Eligibility criteria

The following are the requirements for eligibility for the scholarship award for the Postgraduate programme in Ophthalmology.

- a) Applicants must be willing to adhere to the following;
 - i. CBM core values (Christianity, Internationalism, Professionalism, Integrity, Communication and Inclusion) (<https://www.cbm.org/about-cbm/our-vision-mission-and-values/>)
